DAVEY MIYABE

SENIOR DIRECTOR / VP, PRODUCT DESIGN

Design leader who builds teams, product and systems.

- UX & product design executive with 16 years launching, managing, and scaling design operations across automotive, sports, and enterprise technology.
- Grew design teams from 1 to 9 at Second Spectrum and 2 to 7 at Liferay, built the Instil team from scratch, and led 14 designers across three Toyota teams at Saatchi.
- Led design through measurable growth: Toyota SmartPath from $500K to $2M, a $20M Series B at Second Spectrum, and a $15M Series A at Instil.

INSTIL

INSTIL.IO / 2020 TO PRESENT

Head of Design

Products: Instil Platform, a CRM with fundraising, events, and membership modules, donor portal, auctions and seating; and Instil Relay, AI-integrated tools.

- Recruited to lead design for an integrated CRM serving global nonprofit organizations. Partnered with the CEO and fellow executives on research, roadmap, and creative direction.
- Partnered with the CTO and CPO to create the GTM strategy, securing 40+ clients and $15M in Series A funding.
- Designed the products from 0 to 1 and to scale, plus the marketing and branding. Founding executive team member (5th employee); defined roles across design, engineering, marketing, and product, and helped hire to just under 40 people.
- Built the design team from the ground up (peak of 4), establishing a culture of collaboration and earning accolades for new and innovative UX and app interfaces.
- Spearheaded company-wide AI initiatives and led the first AI features end to end: donor briefings that took hours now take about 30 seconds, and voice-logged meeting notes take about 3 minutes instead of 15 to 30.
- Working with product and engineering to build an end-to-end AI product development system that cut delivery from about 5 months to 3 weeks, supported by a design system and design ops I built.

SAATCHI & SAATCHI LA

2017 TO 2020

Associate Creative Director, UX

Led three Toyota design teams (SmartPath, Toyota Owners, Toyota Financial Services): 14 designers plus a dotted line to about 20 UX designers. Sized each team to its contract budget.

- Grew Toyota SmartPath from a $500K website widget to a $2M end-to-end car shopping product, the first of its kind to allow online buying. Led all aspects of the project.
- Rolled out from 2 pilot dealerships to about 10, then in waves. Same dealers, before and after: sales up 22.75% and gross profit up 42.55%, with about 60% of shoppers taking the first offer.
- Creative-directed the digital implementation of Toyota's Start Your Impossible Olympics campaign, garnering international accolades including the Cannes Gold Lion Award and the Grand Prix Clio Award in 2019.
- Introduced human-centered design and an agile way of working that became Toyota's blueprint for working with vendors.

SECOND SPECTRUM

SECONDSPECTRUM.COM / 2014 TO 2017

Creative Director / UX Design Manager

Led a team of UX and product designers, film editors, animators, 3D modelers, and production artists. Grew the design team from 1 to 9 full-time (15 with contractors) over three years.

- Collaborated with CEO, CTO, and COO to generate consumer-focused products across social graphics, articles, TED Talks, motion, entertainment, and digital apps, helping the company win multiple Sports Emmys.
- Led design of the products from 0 to 1 and to scale, and, with the founders, the marketing and branding, as the Second Spectrum suite of tools was adopted league-wide across the NBA, ESPN, Turner Broadcasting, and Sky Sports, and the company raised a $20M Series B.

KEY PROJECTS

- ClippersIQ: App designed to enhance the Clippers live game experience by advancing analytics to inform and engage fans.
- StoryBoard: Interactive tool that enables new data-driven stories to be told in a consumable manner.
- CourtVision: An enhanced viewing experience utilizing player tracking data and semantics to provide fans a customizable watch experience.
- Creator & Insight Platform: Analytics and data visualization tool for teams and media outlets to provide consumable sports metrics.

LIFERAY

LIFERAY.COM / 2010 TO 2014

Global Design Manager

Transformed a challenged marketing and design team by breaking down silos and bridging the divide between internal teams. Developed the company's brand and digital presence to allow it to scale.

- Grew the design team from 2 to 7 (250%) as the company grew from about 50 to 700 people across 8 countries. Supported the languages and cultures of each team.
- Advanced the company from a small industry player to hosting a 2K-guest conference providing brand experiences for clients.
- Established the UX practice from inception, starting in marketing design, including all processes and procedures.
